Celebrate Côr y Boro's National Eisteddfod success at our Harvest Service to welcome Peter Dewi

Congratulations to Mike and Côr y Boro for coming second in the National Eisteddfod this August in Llanrwst in the Conwy Valley in Snowdonia. We look forward to celebrating this achievement with Côr y Boro in our Harvest Service on 6 October at 11am in which we also welcome Peter Dewi Richards as the Chapel's Honorary Friend who will from now on be leading us in our Communion Service every month.

We are also delighted to be joined at this Service by Côr Dinas, also frequent and much-loved performers and supporters of Borough Chapel. With Howel's legendary catering this should be a very special service.

Would you like to give us a talk or take part in a
Borough Service?

We are always looking for speakers at our Services so if you have a subject that you would like to talk about or if you have a favourite thinker, preacher or writer let us know and we will invite them to a Service. We have also enjoyed lots of services taken by chapelgoers and visitors alike and we will continue these. One of the most memorable this year included a thought-provoking talk on the subject of Ethics (31 March) from 17 year old Cai Pritchard. We are very grateful to Cai for this and you can read his message on the attachment to this email. If you are inspired to give a talk or to contribute a reading or perform a piece of music we would love to include you in the Service so do please get in touch (pressnevans@gmail.com)

Our huge thanks to Eiri

Those who came to our July concert will know that after ten years with us Eiri has decided she would be stepping down as Church leader this summer. We could not let her go without saying a few words in appreciation of her ministry and service on that occasion. We would like to thank her again for her dedication to the Boro and we look forward to welcoming her back and to take services with us in the future.

Summer concert raises money for King's College Hospital and Borough Chapel

Our thanks to Mike, Dewi, Côr y Boro, and all who took part in front of house and behind the scenes for our annual Summer Concert which was full to the rafters as usual! The raffle in aid of King's College Hospital Charity raised a magnificent £1000 and ticket sales in aid of the Borough Chapel were in excess of £800. The Chapel would like to thank everyone for their generosity and attached is a letter of thanks from King's College Hospital Charity
